

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until approximately 6:30 p.m. today.

Accordingly (at 5 o'clock and 4 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 1830

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. NEWHOUSE) at 6 o'clock and 30 minutes p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Proceedings will resume on questions previously postponed.

Votes will be taken in the following order:

Motions to suspend the rules and pass:

- H.R. 1011; and
- H.R. 7613.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, the remaining electronic vote will be conducted as a 5-minute vote.

EMERGENCY CONSERVATION PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 2025

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1011) to amend the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978 to remove barriers to agricultural producers in accessing funds to carry out emergency measures under the emergency conservation program, and for other purposes on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. THOMPSON) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 395, nays 10, not voting 26, as follows:

Messrs. NORMAN, GROTHMAN, and BURCHETT changed their vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, April 9, 2026.

Hon. MIKE JOHNSON,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: I have the honor to transmit herewith a copy of a letter received from Mr. J. Blake Evans, Elections Director, with the Georgia Office of the Secretary of State indicating that, according to the unofficial results for the Special General Election held on April 7, 2026, the Honorable Clay Fuller was elected Representative to Congress for the Fourteenth Congressional District of Georgia.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,
KEVIN F. MCCUMBER,
Clerk.

Enclosure.

STATE OF GEORGIA,
OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE,
Atlanta, GA, April 9, 2026.

Hon. KEVIN F. MCCUMBER,
Clerk, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. MCCUMBER: This is to advise you that the unofficial results of the Special Runoff Election held on Tuesday, April 7, 2026, for Representative in Congress from the Fourteenth Congressional District of Georgia, show that Clay Fuller received a total of 72,304 votes or 55.9% of the votes cast for that office.

It would appear from these unofficial results that Clay Fuller was elected as Representative in Congress from the Fourteenth Congressional District of Georgia. To the best of our knowledge and belief at this time, there is no contest to this election.

As soon as the official results are certified to this office by all jurisdictions involved, an official Certificate of Election will be prepared for transmittal as required by law.

Best,

J. BLAKE EVANS,
Elections Director.

SWEARING IN OF THE HONORABLE CLAY FULLER, OF GEORGIA, AS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Georgia, the Honorable Clay Fuller, be permitted to take the oath of office today.

His certificate of election has not arrived, but there is no contest and no question has been raised with regard to his election.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. Will the Representative-elect and the members of the Georgia delegation present themselves in the well.

All Members will rise and the Representative-elect will please raise his right hand.

Mr. FULLER appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations, you are now a Member of the 119th Congress.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE CLAY FULLER TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, as dean of Georgia's congressional delegation, I would like to extend a heartfelt welcome to the Honorable CLAY FULLER.

Welcome, CLAY.

Our delegation is diverse, and we are passionate about how we best represent the great State of Georgia. However, most of all, something I am very proud of is that we still find a way to work together across the aisle, even as we have our diverse interests, particularly when subjects impact the people of the great State of Georgia, wherever they might live, to make our State continue to be the best State in America to do business.

As co-chair of the bipartisan Congressional Military Family Caucus, I appreciate Mr. FULLER's background as an airman and air guardsman, and the tireless contributions of his family to help him get to where he is today. Congratulations, Kate, and your two beautiful children.

CLAY, I know that you will be a champion for rural Georgia, a passion that we can share in common. I look forward to the opportunities ahead to collaborate.

On a personal note, I am happy to see another Emory University alumnus and a practicing attorney join the ranks of public service in Congress from the great State of Georgia.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT), my dear friend and colleague from the Eighth Congressional District, my neighbor, the senior and longest serving Republican in the Georgia delegation.

Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I thank Congressman BISHOP for yielding. I will be brief before Mr. FULLER has his 10 words.

He is a district attorney from north Georgia. He has done an exceptionally good job there. He is still a JAG officer in the Georgia National Guard, and he brings a lot of valuable insight and experience to the House of Representatives. Let's hope we use it.

I am glad to introduce you to the newest member of the Georgia delegation of the United States Congress, Mr. CLAY FULLER, and his family.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I was actually told it was 5 words, not 10.

First off, I just want to say thank you to God. But for His grace, I wouldn't be here today. I want to say thank you to my wife, Kate, and my two children, Tallulah and Callum, here. I hope I am going to make you proud each and every day here.

I want to also say thank you to the friends and family who traveled all the way here to be with me today. I hope I make you proud.

To the hardworking people of Georgia 14 who elected me, you have sent a warrior to Congress, and I can't wait to fight for you each and every day.

To my Democratic colleagues, I look forward to working with each and every one of you.

Mr. Speaker, I am ready to get to work here. God bless you all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Under clause 5(d) of rule XX, the Chair announces to the House that, in light of the administration of the oath of office to the gentleman from Georgia, the whole number of the House is 432.

AIRSPACE LOCATION AND ENHANCED RISK TRANSPARENCY ACT OF 2026

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 7613) to require certain aircraft to be equipped with collision mitigation technology, to improve helicopter route safety and separation around airports, to update air traffic control processes and procedures, to address national airspace system safety in Department of Defense activities, and for other purposes, as amended, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. GRAVES) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, as amended.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 396, nays 10, not voting 25, as follows:
