SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Effective January 24, 2003, the Homeland Security Act of 2002 divided the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) into two new agencies, the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) in the Department of the Treasury and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) in the Department of Justice. ATF oversees firearms, explosives, and arson programs and administers laws pertaining to alcohol and tobacco smuggling and diversion. TTB is responsible for administering Chapters 51 (relating to distilled spirits, wine, and beer) and 52 (relating to tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes) of title 26 of the United States Code (U.S.C.), which contains the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. TTB also administers sections 4181 and 4182 (relating to the excise tax on firearms and ammunition) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and title 27 of the U.S.C. (relating to alcohol).

Section 1512 of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 authorized TTB to continue its operations under completed administrative actions taken by ATF until such actions are amended, modified, superseded, terminated, set aside, or revoked in accordance with law. As of January 24, 2003, the following Privacy Act systems of records notices were in effect for ATF records:

ATF .001-Administrative Record System;
ATF .002-Correspondence Record System;
ATF .003-Criminal Investigation Report System;
ATF .007-Personnel Record System;
ATF .008-Regulatory Enforcement Record System; and
ATF .009-Technical and Scientific Services Record System.

Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-130, TTB has completed a review of its current records to determine what records are Privacy Act systems of records. TTB reviewed the established Government-wide Privacy Act system of records notices published by such agencies as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the General Services Administration, the Merit Systems Protection Board, the Office of Government Ethics, and the Office of Personnel Management, and Treasury-wide systems of records notices.

As a result of this review, TTB has determined that the only Privacy Act system of records it maintains which is not covered by a Government-wide or Treasury-wide system of records notice is the "Treasury/ATF .008-Regulatory Enforcement Record System." This system of records will be maintained by TTB under the new title "Treasury/TTB

.001—Regulatory Enforcement Record System.” TTB also determined that the following systems of records should be removed from the Department’s Privacy Act systems of records inventory:

ATF .001—Administrative Record System;
 ATF .002—Correspondence Record System;
 ATF .003—Criminal Investigation Report System;
 ATF .007—Personnel Record System; and
 ATF .009—Technical and Scientific Services Record System.

An interim final rule amending 31 CFR 1.36 to reflect the removal of the ATF .003, ATF .007, and ATF .009 from the list of exempt systems, and the redesignation of ATF .008—Regulatory Enforcement Record System, will be published separately in the Federal Register. Note that while ATF .001 and ATF .002 are part of the current Department of the Treasury systems of records inventory and are being deleted from that inventory pursuant to this notice, these two systems are not part of the list of exempt systems of records in 31 CFR 1.36. Therefore, these two systems are not included in the interim rule amendment of § 1.36.

The report of the revised system of records, as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), has been submitted to the Committee on Government Reform of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, and the Office of Management and Budget, pursuant to Appendix I to OMB Circular A–130, “Federal Agency Responsibilities for Maintaining Records About Individuals,” dated November 30, 2000.

The proposed revisions to the system of records entitled “Treasury/TTB .001—Regulatory Enforcement Record System” are published in their entirety below.

Dated: July 23, 2008.

Assistant Secretary for Management and Chief Financial Officer.
