Proviso.

Appointments, etc., to be apportioned among the States and Territories.

Proviso.

clerk, or otherwise in any department at the date of the passage of this act who has heretofore been paid from any appropriation made for contingent expenses or for any contingent or general purpose, and whose office or place is specifically provided for herein, under the direction of the head of that department may be continued in such office, clerkship, or employment without a new appointment thereto, but shall be charged to the quotas of the several States and Territories from which they are respectively appointed and nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or modify section one hundred and sixty-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

R. S. 166, 27.

Unexpended balances, etc., for collecting revenue from customs carried to surplus fund and covered into Treasury.

Secretary of Treasury to report annually number, class, etc., of officers at ports of entry, and amount required for contingent expenses.

Appropriations for stationery, etc., in Surgeon-General's and Adjutant General's offices may be transferred, etc.

Assignment of rooms, etc., of State, War, and Navy building.

Proviso.

Joint select committee of Congress to examine building and locate for occupancy, the State, War, and Navy Departments, respectively.

SEC. 5. That from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and of each year thereafter, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all unexpended balances of the permanent and indefinite appropriations for collecting the revenue from customs which shall have remained upon the books of the Treasury for two fiscal years to be carried to the surplus fund and covered into the Treasury. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to include in his next estimates to Congress, and annually thereafter, a statement specifying in detail the number and class of officers and employees of every grade and nature, with the rate of compensation to each, that may in his judgment be necessary to properly conduct the business of collecting the revenue at each port of entry in the United States, together with an estimate of the amounts required for contingent expenses at each of said ports, and for such additional expenses of the service as cannot be otherwise specifically provided for.

SEC. 6. That so much of the funds appropriated by this act for the contingent expenses of the Surgeon-General's and the Adjutant General's offices respectively as are or may be necessary to provide stationery, blank books, furniture and other articles for the use of the clerks and others engaged in those offices on work relating to the settlement of applications for pensions, may be used all or in part, under the orders of the Secretary of War, in either of said offices as in his judgment the best interests of the service may require.

The fourth story and attic of the South wing of the State, War, and Navy building, except such portion as is now within the Library of the State Department, are assigned to the War Department for such uses of the Department as in the judgment of the Secretary of War they may be best fitted, and the sum of one thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of State, to enable the Department to remove from said fourth story and attic the records, documents, and papers, now stored there, and to re-arrange them in other rooms in said Department. That the partition wall separating the corridors of the first, second, third, and fourth stories of the East wing from the said stories of the South wing of the State, War, and Navy building shall be removed so as to afford easy access from one wing to the other on the afore-mentioned floors of said building: Provided, That a joint select committee of three members of the House of Representatives and three Senators to be appointed respectively by the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate, upon the passage of this act, shall on or before the completion of the North wing of the State, War, and Navy building, make examination of said building and set apart such portions thereof for the use and occupancy of the State, War, and Navy Departments respectively as in their judgment the best interests of the public service and the needs of said departments respectively may require and upon filing an agreed statement of such partition by said joint select committee in triplicate with the respective Secretaries of such departments the building shall be occupied as therein provided as soon thereafter as practicable.

Approved, August 5, 1882.
