[No. 13.] Joint Resolution To correct abuses in the public printing and to provide for the allotment of cost of certain documents and reports.

March 30, 1906.
[H. J. R. 127.]

[Pub. Res., No. 13.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter, in the printing and binding of documents or reports emanating from the Executive Departments, bureaus, and independent offices of the Government, the cost of which is now charged to the allotment for printing and binding for Congress, or to appropriations or allotments of appropriations other than those made to the Executive Departments, bureaus, or independent offices of the Government, the cost of illustrations, composition, stereotyping, and other work involved in the actual preparation for printing, apart from the creation of manuscript, shall be charged to the appropriation or allotment of appropriation for the printing and binding of the Department, bureau, or independent office of the Government in which such documents or reports originate; the balance of cost shall be charged to the allotment for printing and binding for Congress, and to the appropriation or allotment of appropriation of the Executive Department, bureau, or independent office of the Government, in proportion to the number delivered to each; the cost of any copies of such documents or reports distributed otherwise than through Congress, or the Executive Departments, bureaus, and independent offices of the Government, if such there be, shall be charged as heretofore: Provided, That on or before the first day of December in each fiscal year each Executive Department, bureau, or independent office of the Government to which an appropriation or allotment of appro-

[No. 14.] Joint Resolution To prevent unnecessary printing and binding and to correct evils in the present method of distribution of public documents.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Joint Committee on Printing is hereby authorized and directed to establish rules and regulations, from time to time, which shall be observed by the Public Printer, whereby public documents and reports printed for Congress, or either House thereof, may be printed in two or more editions, instead of one, to meet the public requirements: Provided, That in no case shall the aggregate of said editions exceed the number of copies now authorized or which may hereafter be authorized: And provided further, That the number of copies of any public document or report now authorized to be printed or which may hereafter be authorized to be printed for any of the Executive Departments, or bureaus or branches thereof, or independent offices of the Government may be supplied in two or more editions, instead of one, upon a requisition on the Public Printer by the official head of such Department or independent office, but in no case shall the aggregate of said editions exceed the number of copies now authorized, or which may hereafter be authorized: Provided further, That nothing herein shall operate to obstruct the printing of the full number of any document or report, or the allotment of the full quota to Senators and Representatives, as now authorized, or which may hereafter be authorized, when a legitimate demand for the full complement is known to exist.

John W. Cranford.
Eulogies on, ordered printed.

Copies.

[No. 15.] Joint Resolution For the publication of eulogies delivered in Congress on Honorable John W. Cranford, late a Representative in Congress.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the eulogies delivered in the Senate and House during the third session of the Fifty-fifth Congress on the late Honorable John W. Cranford, a Representative in Congress from the Fourth district of Texas, who died but a short time before the end of the Fifty-fifth Congress, and the eulogies on whose life and character were delivered in the Senate and House before the adjournment of said Congress, but for some unknown reason were never published and under the law can not now be published except by joint resolution, be published in the form and manner usually followed in the publication of eulogies in Congress on deceased members, to the number of one thousand copies to be distributed by the Representative
