[No. 30.] Joint Resolution Providing for payment for dredging the channel and anchorage basin between Ship Island Harbor and Gulfport, Mississippi, and for other purposes.

June 14, 1906.
[H. J. R. 166.]

[Pub. Res., No. 30.]

Whereas on the twentieth day of February, anno Domini nineteen hundred and one, a contract was entered into between Major W. T. Rossell, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, by and in behalf of the United States of America, and Spencer S. Bullis, for dredging a channel and anchorage basin in Mississippi Sound between Ship Island Harbor and Gulfport, Mississippi, which contract was made in accordance with a provision of the river and harbor act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, authorizing the payment of the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for securing a specified width and a depth of nineteen feet in such channel and anchorage basin; and Preamble.

Whereas under said contract, for several years past, the said channel and anchorage basin have been dredged to the approximate depth and width required in said contract, and the said channel is now and has been available for use by vessels drawing nineteen feet of water and more: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury, or other proper officer of the United States, be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Spencer S. Bullis, with whom said contract was made, or to his assigns or agents now authorized to receive payment as aforesaid, the contract price for dredging said channel and anchorage basin, to wit, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, being the amount heretofore appropriated by Congress and now in the Treasury for payment for the work included in said contract; and it is declared to be the intention of Congress that so much of said contract as relates to securing the depth and width of said channel and anchorage basin provided for therein shall be regarded as complied with at the date of the taking effect of this resolution: Provided, That the said amount shall not be paid over to the said Spencer S. Bullis, or other person or persons as aforesaid, until the person or persons, companies, or corporations owning or controlling docks, wharves, or terminals in, along, or upon said basin, or connected directly or indirectly therewith, shall execute an agreement that the charges for the use of said docks, wharves, and terminals shall be such as the Secretary of War may from time to time approve.
