BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Old Kasaan National Monument, Alaska.
Preamble.

WHEREAS, certain historic aboriginal ruins of the former Haida Indian village known as "Old Kasaan", situated upon public lands of the United States, on Prince of Wales Island, within the Tongass National Forest, in the Territory of Alaska, are of unusual ethnologic, scientific, and educational interest, as representing a distinctive type of aboriginal American civilization, the vestiges of which are rapidly disappearing, and it appears that the public interests would be promoted by reserving these ruins, with as much land as may be necessary for the proper protection thereof, as a National Monument;

National Monument,
Alaska.
Vol. 34, p. 225.

Now, therefore, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by section two of the Act of Congress approved June 8, 1906, entitled "An Act for the Preservation of American Antiquities", do proclaim that there is hereby reserved from appropriation and use of all kinds under all of the public land laws, subject to all prior valid adverse claims, and set apart as a National Monument, all that certain tract of land, in the Territory of Alaska, shown as the Old Kasaan National Monument on the diagram forming a part hereof.

Tongass National Monument.
Use maintained.

The reservation made by this proclamation is not intended to prevent the use of the land for forest purposes under the proclamation establishing the Tongass National Forest. The two reservations shall both be effective on the land withdrawn, but the National Monument hereby established shall be the dominant reservation, and any use of the land which interferes with its preservation or protection as a National Monument is hereby forbidden.

Reserved from settlement, etc.

Warning is hereby given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, remove, or destroy any feature of this National Monument, or to locate or settle on any of the land reserved by this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and [SEAL.] sixteen, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-first.
