

CHILD HEALTH DAY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 7, 1931.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Congress by joint resolution has authorized and requested the President of the United States of America to proclaim annually that May Day is Child Health Day; and

Child Health Day.
Preamble.
Vol. 45, p. 617.

WHEREAS the responsibility for the well-being of children is a community responsibility as well as an individual duty;

Observance invited.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HERBERT HOOVER, President of the United States of America, do call upon all governors of States of the Union, and all governors of Territories and possessions of the United States, to declare to their people that May Day should be used wherever possible as Child Health Day, for the consideration of all public and private measures by which the health of our children may be conserved and advanced. I especially commend for consideration on that day "The Children's Charter" as set forth by the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection.

"The Children's Charter" especially commended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 7th day of April, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-fifth.

HERBERT HOOVER

EMERGENCY BOARD, LOUISIANA AND ARKANSAS RAILWAY COMPANY—SHOPMEN

April 16, 1931.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Labor dispute, Louisiana and Arkansas Railway Company and employees.
Preamble.

WHEREAS the President, having been duly notified by the Board of Mediation that a dispute between the Louisiana & Arkansas Railway Co., a carrier, and certain of its employees represented by the Railway Employees' Department, American Federation of Labor—Federated Shop Crafts, which dispute has not been heretofore adjusted under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, now threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce within Louisiana and Arkansas to a degree such as to deprive such section of the country of essential transportation service;

Emergency board created to investigate and report thereon.

Vol. 44, p. 586.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HERBERT HOOVER, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, and by virtue of and under the authority in me vested by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, do hereby create a board to be composed of three persons not pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier, to investigate such dispute and report their findings to me within 30 days from this date.
