CHILD HEALTH DAY

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

March 21, 1932.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Congress of the United States, by enactment of May 18, 1928, requested the President to proclaim May 1 as Child Health Day, for national consideration of this subject; and Child Health Day. Preamble. Vol. 45, p. 617.

WHEREAS the children of this Nation are our most precious possession, the causes and objects of our deepest affections, and in them is the promise of our future homes; and

WHEREAS we have in them the constant and unfailing source of vitality, wealth, and leadership, the future benefits of which to the Nation depend upon the health and protection of children to-day; and

WHEREAS the knowledge of how to protect and promote their health, physical, mental, and spiritual, is more accessible than ever before, as the reports of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection give tangible evidence;
