October 10, 1934.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS a Supplementary Extradition Treaty between the United States of America and the Republic of Latvia was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Washington on the tenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four, the original of which Supplementary Treaty, being in the English language, is word for word as follows:

Supplementary extradition treaty with Latvia.
Preamble.

The United States of America and the Republic of Latvia, being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Treaty concluded between the two countries on October 16, 1923, with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a supplementary treaty for this purpose and have appointed as their plenipotentiaries, to wit:

Contracting Powers.

Vol. 43, p. 1738.

Plenipotentiaries.

The President of the United States of America; Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State of the United States of America; and

The President of the Republic of Latvia; Mr. Arturs Lule, Consul General of Latvia in New York,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:

ARTICLE I

The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered 1 to 24 in Article II of the said Treaty of October 16, 1923, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say:

Addition to extraditable crimes.
Vol. 43, pp. 1738-1739.

25. Crimes against the bankruptcy laws.

Crimes against bankruptcy laws.

ARTICLE II

The present Treaty shall be considered as an integral part of the said Extradition Treaty of October 16, 1923, and Article II of the last mentioned Treaty shall be read as if the list of crimes therein contained had originally comprised the additional crime specified and numbered 25 in the first article of the present Treaty.

Considered part of former treaty.
Vol. 43, p. 1739.

ARTICLE III

The present Treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective constitutional methods, and shall take effect on the date of the exchange of ratifications, which shall take place at Riga as soon as possible.

Exchange of ratifications.
Effective date.

Signatures.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the above named plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty and have hereunto affixed their seals.

DONE in duplicate at Washington, this tenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four.

CORDELL HULL [SEAL]
ARTURS LULE [SEAL]

Ratifications exchanged.

AND WHEREAS, the said Supplementary Treaty has been duly ratified on both parts, and the ratifications of the two Governments were exchanged in the city of Riga on the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five;

Proclamation.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known that I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, have caused the said Supplementary Treaty to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and the citizens thereof.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this tenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.
