[H. R. 7247]
[Private Law 598]

Silas Frankel.
Reimbursement for loss on bail bond.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Silas Frankel, of Peoria, Illinois, the sum of $2,596.50, in full settlement of all claims against the United States. Such sum represents reimbursement for the loss sustained by him on account of the forfeiture to the United States of a like amount under a bail bond executed by the said Silas Frankel and Louis M. Koren and conditioned upon the delivery in court of one Herbert G. Baumhoff, alias "Chubby". By reason of the nonappearance of the said Herbert G. Baumhoff, alias "Chubby", said bail bond was declared forfeited in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, Eastern Division, on October 24, 1939: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved, December 17, 1942.
