

[CHAPTER 430]

AN ACT

To amend section 251 of the Internal Revenue Code.

August 1, 1947
[H. R. 3444]
[Public Law 310]

53 Stat. 79.
26 U. S. C. § 251.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 251 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to income from sources within possessions of the United States) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new subsection to read as follows:

“(i) PRISONERS OF WAR AND INTERNEES.—In the case of a citizen of the United States taken as a prisoner of war while serving within a possession of the United States as a member of the military or naval forces of the United States, and in the case of a citizen interned by the enemy while serving as an employee within a possession of the United States—

“(1) if such citizen was confined in any place not within a possession of the United States, such place of confinement shall, for the purposes of this section, be considered as within a possession of the United States; and

“(2) any compensation received within the United States by such citizen attributable to the period of time during which such citizen was a prisoner of war or interned by the enemy shall, for the purposes of subsection (b), be considered as compensation received outside the United States.”

Applicability.

SEC. 2. The amendment made by this Act shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

Approved August 1, 1947.
