AN ACT

To provide equitable treatment for producers participating in the soil bank program on the basis of incorrect information furnished by the Government.

Soil bank program.
Fair treatment for producers.
70 Stat. 188.
7 USC 1801 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Soil Bank Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

"SEC. 128. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary may, to the extent he deems it desirable in order to provide fair and equitable treatment, pay a producer compensation under the acreage reserve or conservation reserve program which he otherwise would not be entitled to receive because the contract, application therefor, action, or conduct of the producer is—

"(1) not in conformity with the provisions of the program, or

"(2) less favorable to the producer than would have been the case if it had been based on correct information, or

"(3) based on an understanding that payment would be forthcoming in an amount in excess of that permitted by the program if it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the contract, application, action, or conduct of the producer was the result of relying in good faith on the erroneous approval of such contract, application, action, or conduct by, or on the erroneous advice, determination, or computation of, an authorized representative of the Secretary. No contract heretofore or hereafter entered into shall be modified, invalidated, or changed because of the marriage of any two contracting parties."

Authorizing persons maintaining or defending actions in the District of Columbia on behalf of a minor to give releases of liability, and requiring persons receiving money or property in settlement of such actions or in satisfaction of a judgment in any such action to be appointed as guardian of the estate of such minor.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act entitled "An Act to establish a Code of Law for the District of Columbia", approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854), as amended, is amended by inserting immediately after section 153 the following new section:

D. C. Minors, liability releases.

"SEC. 153A. (1) Any person entitled to maintain or defend an action in behalf of a minor child, including actions relating to real estate, shall be competent to settle or compromise any action so brought and, upon settlement or compromise thereof or upon satisfaction of any judgment obtained therein, shall be competent to give a full acquittance and release of all liability in connection with such action, but no such settlement or compromise shall be valid unless the same shall be approved by a judge of the court in which such action is pending.

"(2) Before any person shall receive any money or other property on behalf of a minor in settlement or compromise of any action brought on behalf of or against such minor or in satisfaction of any judgment in any such action, where (after deduction of fees, costs and all other expenses incident to the matter) the net value of said money and property due the minor exceeds $3,000, such person shall be duly appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction as guardian of the estate of such minor to receive such money or property, and shall have qualified as such."
