

“(B) Of the quantity authorized for purchase and importation under subparagraph (A), the President is authorized to allocate to countries within the Western Hemisphere, for the six-month period ending December 31, 1962, an amount of sugar, raw value, not exceeding in the aggregate 75,000 short tons, and for the calendar years 1963 and 1964, an amount of sugar, raw value, not exceeding in the aggregate 150,000 short tons.”; and

WHEREAS the allocation of sugar authorized under the provisions of section 202(c)(4)(B) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, is dependent upon a quantity of sugar being available for purchase and importation in accordance with the provisions of section 202(c)(4)(A) of the Act, during the six-month period ending December 31, 1962, and each of the calendar years 1963 and 1964:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 202(c)(4)(B) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, do hereby allocate, of the quantities authorized for purchase and importation under section 202(c)(4)(A) of such Act, the following quantities of sugar, raw value, as sugar which may be imported into the continental United States from the specified countries for the specified periods pursuant to section 202(c)(4)(B) of such Act:

1. For the six-month period ending December 31, 1962:

- a. From Argentina 10,000 short tons, and
- b. From the Dominican Republic 65,000 short tons.

2. For each of the calendar years 1963 and 1964:

- a. From Argentina 20,000 short tons, and
- b. From the Dominican Republic 130,000 short tons.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-two, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-seventh.

Proclamation 3487

CHILD HEALTH DAY, 1962

By the President of the United States of America
A Proclamation

August 16, 1962

WHEREAS children are our Nation's most priceless resource and most cherished responsibility; and

WHEREAS it is essential that boys and girls of our Nation be given a good start in life by the fostering of their emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being so that in future years each may achieve his full potential for a productive and satisfying life; and

WHEREAS the observance of a special day emphasizing child health effectively underscores these goals; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution of May 18, 1928, 45 Stat. 617; as amended by a joint resolution of September 22, 1959, 73 Stat. 627 (36 U.S.C. 143), requested the President of the United States to issue annually a proclamation setting apart the first Monday in October as Child Health Day; and

WHEREAS Child Health Day is also an appropriate time to observe a Universal Children's Day, and to salute the work which the United Nations, through its specialized agencies, and the United Nations Children's Fund are doing to build better health for children around the world:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN F. KENNEDY, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Monday, the first day of October 1962, as Child Health Day; and I invite all persons and all agencies and organizations interested in the welfare of children to unite on that day in observances that will underscore the importance of providing opportunities for our children at the beginning of life that will insure healthy development through the years.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this sixteenth day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-two, [SEAL] and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-seventh.

JOHN F. KENNEDY
