Public Law 87-748

AN ACT

October 5, 1962
[H. R. 1960]

To amend chapter 85 of title 28 of the United States Code relating to the jurisdiction of the United States district courts, and for other purposes.

Courts.
Actions against
Government officials.
28 USC 1331-
1360.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That chapter 85 of title 28 of the United States Code is amended—

(a) By adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“§ 1361. Action to compel an officer of the United States to perform his duty

“The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.”

(b) By adding at the end of the table of sections for chapter 85 of title 28 of the United States Code the following:

“1361. Action to compel an officer of the United States to perform his duty.”

SEC. 2. Section 1391 of title 28 of the United States Code is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(e) A civil action in which each defendant is an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof acting in his official capacity or under color of legal authority, or an agency of the United States, may, except as otherwise provided by law, be brought in any judicial district in which: (1) a defendant in the action resides, or (2) the cause of action arose, or (3) any real property involved in the action is situated, or (4) the plaintiff resides if no real property is involved in the action.

“The summons and complaint in such an action shall be served as provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure except that the delivery of the summons and complaint to the officer or agency as required by the rules may be made by certified mail beyond the territorial limits of the district in which the action is brought.”

Approved October 5, 1962.
