

“(5) academic background, capabilities, and accomplishments;

“(6) the needs of the Navy and Army; and

“(7) input from the component within each covered Armed Force with primary responsibility for determining the duty assignments of enlisted members.

“(e) POST-PARTICIPATION SERVICE.—Subject to such terms, conditions, and exceptions as the Secretaries concerned may establish, an enlisted member who receives a master’s degree under the Program shall serve for a period of not less than two years in a duty assignment that is relevant to the degree obtained by the member under the Program.

“(f) FRAMEWORK FOR FILLING BILLETS.—In conjunction with selecting enlisted members for participation in the Program as described in subsection (d), the Secretaries concerned shall establish a framework for assigning enlisted personnel who are not participating in the Program—

“(1) to fill the billets of the members participating in the Program while such members are completing a course of study at the Naval Postgraduate School; and

“(2) to fill the billets of members who received a master’s degree under the Program while such members are engaged in post-participation service as described in subsection (e).

“(g) IDENTIFICATION OF DEGREE PROGRAMS.—The Secretaries concerned shall coordinate with the President of the Naval Postgraduate School to identify specific master’s degree programs offered by the School in which Program participants may enroll. In identifying such programs, the Secretaries shall consider—

“(1) the needs of the Navy and Army;

“(2) the capacity of the Naval Postgraduate School; and

“(3) the extent to which enrollment in a specific program is expected to have a positive effect on the career trajectories of participants.

“(h) INFORMATION DISSEMINATION.—The Secretaries concerned shall take such actions as are necessary to notify and inform enlisted members about the Program.

“(i) REPORT.—Before the expiration of the six-year period described in subsection (j), the Secretaries concerned, in coordination with the Secretary of Defense, shall submit to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives a report that includes—

“(1) an assessment of whether and to what extent the Program has met the needs of the covered Armed Forces and had positive effects on participating enlisted members, including with respect to—

“(A) career trajectory, including potential pay increases;

“(B) retention;

“(C) recruitment;

“(D) job performance;

“(E) merit-based promotions and merit-based promotion reorder; and

“(F) compatibility with the objectives outlined in the 2022 National Defense Strategy to modernize the Armed Services, spur innovation, and outpace and outthink adversaries of the United States;

“(2) the recommendations of the Secretaries regarding whether the Program should be extended or made permanent;

“(3) an assessment of the funding and capabilities that may be needed to make the Program permanent; and

“(4) any other matters the Secretaries determine to be relevant.

“(j) SUNSET.—The Program shall terminate six years after the date on which the Program commences under this section.

“(k) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

“(1) The term ‘covered Armed Force’ means the Army or Navy.

“(2) The term ‘Secretary concerned’ means—

“(A) the Secretary of the Army, with respect to matters concerning the Army; and

“(B) the Secretary of the Navy, with respect to matters concerning the Navy.”

§ 8546. Officers of foreign countries: admission

(a) The Secretary of the Navy, upon authorization of the President, may permit commissioned officers of the military services of foreign countries to receive instruction at the Naval Postgraduate School.

(b) Officers receiving instruction under this section are subject to the same regulations governing attendance, discipline, discharge, and standards of study as apply to students who are officers of the United States naval service.

(c) No officer of a foreign country is entitled to an appointment in the Navy or the Marine Corps by reason of his completion of the prescribed course of study at the Postgraduate School.
