SUBCHAPTER LIX-FFF—JIMMY CARTER
NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

Editorial Notes

CODIFICATION

Pub. L. 100-206, which enacted this subchapter, originally established the Jimmy Carter National Historic Site, which is listed in a table of National Historic Sites under section 320101 of Title 54, National Park Service and Related Programs. The amendments made by Pub. L. 116-341 effectively redesignated the site as the Jimmy Carter National Historical Park, after which the text of Pub. L. 100-206 was set out as this subchapter.

§ 410hhh. Establishment of Jimmy Carter National Historic Site¹

(a) Establishment

In order to provide for the benefit, inspiration, and education of the American people, there is hereby established the Jimmy Carter National Historical Park in the State of Georgia. In administering the historical park, the Secretary shall—

- (1) preserve the key sites and structures located within the historical park associated with Jimmy Carter during his lifespan;
- (2) provide for the interpretation of the life and Presidency of Jimmy Carter; and
- (3) present the history of a small rural southern town.

(b) Description of Jimmy Carter National Historic Site¹

(1) The historical park shall consist of the lands and interests in lands (including the real property described in paragraph (2)) as generally depicted on the map entitled "Jimmy Carter National Historical Park² and Preservation District Boundary Map", numbered NHS-JC-80000, and dated April 1987. The map shall be on file and available for public inspection at appropriate offices of the National Park Service.

(2) The real property referred to in paragraph (1) is that real property which has significant historical association with the life of James Earl Carter, Jr., 39th President of the United States, located in the town of Plains and the County of Sumter, Georgia, and described more particularly as follows—

(A) the home of former President Carter on Woodland Drive in Plains, Georgia, including the residence and approximately 2.9 acres across Woodland Drive;

(B) the Plains Railroad Depot, adjacent to the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad, which served as the campaign headquarters of former President Carter;

(C) the boyhood home of former President Carter, consisting of the residence, together with not more than 15 acres, located west of Plains near the community of Archery, Georgia;

(D) the 100-foot wide scenic easements on either side of Old Plains Highway from the intersection of U.S. Highway 280 to the boyhood home referred to in subparagraph (C);

(E) the Plains High School and grounds of approximately 12 acres; and

(F) the Gnann House at 1 Woodland Drive, which is adjacent to the residence referred to in subparagraph (A) of former President Carter.

(c) Acquisition of real and personal property

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection and subject to such terms, reservations,

¹So in original. Probably should be "Historical Park". See Codification note below.

²So in original. Probably should be "Historic Site". See Codification and 2021 Amendment notes below.
