- (4) to be a resource and support organization that does not select, control, or supervise State association, local chapter, or individual member activities;
- (5) to develop educational materials, programs, services, and events as a service to State and local agricultural education agencies;
- (6) to seek and promote inclusion and diversity in its membership, leadership, and staff to reflect the belief of the FFA in the value of all human beings;
- (7) to create, foster, and assist subsidiary chapters¹ and associations of those chapters in the States, territories, and possessions of the United States as such chapters and associations carry out agricultural education programs that are approved by States, territories, or possessions;
- (8) to build character,¹ and develop competent and assertive agricultural leadership;
- (9) to increase awareness of the global and technological importance of agriculture, food, and natural resources, and the way agriculture contributes to our well-being;
