DEFINITION

For definition of “congressional intelligence committees” as used in this section, see section 2 of Pub. L. 113-126, set out as a note under section 3003 of this title.

§ 3312. Repealed. Pub. L. 117-263, div. F, title LXIII, § 6316(c), Dec. 23, 2022, 136 Stat. 3513

Section, Pub. L. 115-31, div. N, title III, §310, May 5, 2017, 131 Stat. 815, provided for congressional oversight of policy directives and guidance.

§ 3313. Notification of memoranda of understanding

(a) In general

Each year, concurrent with the annual budget request submitted by the President to Congress under section 1105 of title 31, each head of an element of the intelligence community shall submit to the congressional intelligence committees a report that lists each memorandum of understanding or other agreement regarding significant operational activities or policy entered into during the most recently completed fiscal year between or among such element and any other entity of the United States Government.

(b) Provision of documents

Each head of an element of an intelligence community who receives a request from the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate or the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives for a copy of a memorandum of understanding or other document listed in a report submitted by the head under subsection (a) shall submit to such committee the requested copy as soon as practicable after receiving such request.

(c) Administrative memorandum or agreement

Nothing in this section may be construed to require an element of the intelligence community to submit to the congressional intelligence committees any memorandum or agreement that is solely administrative in nature, including a memorandum or agreement regarding joint duty or other routine personnel assignments.
