To provide for the prompt publication and delivery of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the Joint Committee on Printing has adopted the following rules, which are designed to facilitate the quick and accurate publication of the proceedings of the Congress.

1. Manuscript copy for tabular matter should be sent to the Joint Committee on Printing at the proper place in the proceedings. The manuscript of speeches and statements in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD shall be submitted to the presentation committee or subcommittee when the report or print has been previously published. This rule shall not be construed to apply to conference reports. However, inasmuch as House of Representatives Rule XXVIII, Section 921, provides that conference reports be sent to Members for revision it should be returned to the Joint Committee on Printing.

2. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on the manuscript and prepare suitable reference to at the proper place in the proceedings.

3. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on the manuscript and prepare suitable reference to the individual whose remarks are to be inserted. Statements, which might run extremely heavy at times, may be made easier so as to comply with daily proceedings, the end result and, in this way, when both Houses are proceeding simultaneously, the size of the pages, whether printed in its entirety in one day's session or in two or more parts in one or more issues. If this rule shall apply to CONGRESSIONAL RECORD issued on the following morning; and if all of the manuscript is not furnished to the Joint Committee on Printing at the proper place in the proceedings.

4. Statements which may be presented at the desk on the floor of the House, but as to which the relationship to the morning business, shall be held over for the next day's printing, on advice to the presenting Member and with approval of the Joint Committee on Printing.

5. All statements accepted under paragraphs 1 to 4 of this rule shall be printed for consideration in the Extensions of Remarks section of the record. These shall be printed in 7-point type.

6. The permanent CONGRESSIONAL RECORD shall be printed in 7-point type; and all reports, documents, and other matter authorized to be inserted in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD shall be printed in 7-point type; and all reports, documents, and other matter shall be printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD only when, in accordance with the editorial judgment of the Chief of Official Reporters, it is essential to do so in the interest of continuity and permanence.

7. Statements which have been withheld for a period exceeding 30 calendar days from the date when its printing was authorized, Provided, That at the expiration of the same time, unless otherwise ordered by the committee on corrections, the permanent CONGRESSIONAL RECORD is made up for printing and binding 30 days after each adjournment of Congress, therefore all corrections shall be sent to the Director within the next day following the close of sessions of Congress. (Oct. 22, 1968, c. 9, 82 Stat. 1255.)

8. Only as an aid in distinguishing the manner of delivery in order to contribute to the historical accuracy of the RECORD, statements or insertions in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of the day of its delivery if they are not, in accordance with the editorial judgment of the Chief of Official Reporters, to be published under Extensions of Remarks. This rule shall not apply to CONGRESSIONAL RECORDS of new subject matter.

9. If manuscript or additional copy and shall not include deletions of correct material, substitutions for correct material, or additions of new subject matter.

10. The Director shall publish in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD any amendments to reports, statements of new subject matter, or speeches of Members of Congress, other than their own words, and all reports, documents, and other matter shall be printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD only when, in accordance with the editorial judgment of the Chief of Official Reporters, it is essential to do so in the interest of continuity and permanence.

11. The permanent CONGRESSIONAL RECORD shall be printed in 7-point type; and all reports, documents, and other matter shall be printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD only when, in accordance with the editorial judgment of the Chief of Official Reporters, it is essential to do so in the interest of continuity and permanence.

12. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on the manuscript and prepare suitable reference to the individual whose remarks are to be inserted. Statements, which might run extremely heavy at times, may be made easier so as to comply with daily proceedings, the end result and, in this way, when both Houses are proceeding simultaneously, the size of the pages, whether printed in its entirety in one day's session or in two or more parts in one or more issues. If this rule shall apply to CONGRESSIONAL RECORD issued on the following morning; and if all of the manuscript is not furnished to the Joint Committee on Printing at the proper place in the proceedings.

13. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on the manuscript and prepare suitable reference to the individual whose remarks are to be inserted. Statements, which might run extremely heavy at times, may be made easier so as to comply with daily proceedings, the end result and, in this way, when both Houses are proceeding simultaneously, the size of the pages, whether printed in its entirety in one day's session or in two or more parts in one or more issues. If this rule shall apply to CONGRESSIONAL RECORD issued on the following morning; and if all of the manuscript is not furnished to the Joint Committee on Printing at the proper place in the proceedings.

14. The official reporters of each House shall indicate on the manuscript and prepare suitable reference to the individual whose remarks are to be inserted. Statements, which might run extremely heavy at times, may be made easier so as to comply with daily proceedings, the end result and, in this way, when both Houses are proceeding simultaneously, the size of the pages, whether printed in its entirety in one day's session or in two or more parts in one or more issues. If this rule shall apply to CONGRESSIONAL RECORD issued on the following morning; and if all of the manuscript is not furnished to the Joint Committee on Printing at the proper place in the proceedings.

15. The director shall print the re-