The online Record has been corrected to read: There was also, discussion of abuses at Abu Ghraib, which diminished America's standing and outraged the American public . . . detainees in U.S. custody went beyond a few isolated incidents at Abu Ghraib. . . . their missions. And that is where the September, 2006 Army Field Manual comes in. . . . Interrogation Group has assured the Select Committee on Intelligence numerous times. The group has repeatedly assured the Committee that they have all the authority they need to effectively gain actionable intelligence. As a consummate consumer of the intelligence products they produce, I agree.
